www.southcoast-animalambulance.co.uk

We are a non profit service and rely only on donations and our domestic animal ambulance/pet taxi service to help in all our wildlife rescue work.

South Coast Animal Ambulance specialise in animal transport. We have been issued with a licence by the government's Animal Health Agency and DEFRA and run in accordance with the British Veterinary Association guidelines.

South Coast Animal Ambulance Services have provided many of our clients with a speedy, reliable service getting ill animals and their owners to us day and night. We recommend them to any of our clients and a cost effective solution that both we and they can rely upon.
